DOWNTOWN BOISE

Tyler Porter ESCROW OFFICER

Although I was born in Portland, I've called Idaho home for most of my life. From summers guiding rafting trips on Idaho's rivers to spending the last 30 years building relationships throughout the Treasure Valley, I've come to appreciate everything Boise has to offer. Downtown Boise has become one of my favorite places to explore, and these are a few of the spots I keep coming back to. I hope you enjoy them too! —Tyler

BREAKFAST

JAVA DOWNTOWN

223 N Sixth St | Boise, ID 83702

» I always grab a Bowl of Soul when I am here. The menu has something for everyone, with plenty of healthy breakfast options and comfortable seating.

LUNCH

WYLD CHILD

13 S Latah St | Boise, ID 83705

» My go-to lunch spot! The patio is perfect for a nice summer day, and with Push & Pour and the STIL Ice Cream right next door, it's easy to make an afternoon of it. Even when it's busy, the service is always quick.

FORK

199 N Eighth St | Boise, ID 83702

» I keep coming back for the burger—it's one of the best in Boise. I still haven't made it past that on the menu, it's just too good!

DINNER

CHANDLERS

981 W Grove St | Boise, ID 83702

One of Boise's best special occasion restaurants.
Worth every penny!

ACERO BOARDS & BOTTLES

801 W Main St | Boise, ID 83702

» Great happy hour, fantastic appetizers, and a central location that makes it easy to meet friends after work!
