I was born and raised in the North Meridian/Eagle area, and it's been so fun to watch these communities grow over the years. From favorite coffee shops and local restaurants to outdoor spaces I've loved since I was a kid, these are a few of the places I find myself coming back to again and again. Check them out! —Larissa

COFFEE

SALT AND LIGHT COFFEE LOUNGE

94 N Fisher Park Way | Eagle, ID 83616

- » Salt & Light is popular for a reason! Their house-made syrups, organic coffee, and creative seasonal drinks keep me coming back.

FITT JUICE

36 N Seneca Springs Way | Star, ID 83669

- » One of the few places in the treasure valley that juices everything fresh to order! FITT has the best juice combos, huge smoothies/acai, and unique warm drinks for the winter.

DINING

SOURDOUGH & SAGE

79 E Aikens St | Eagle, ID 83616

- » This charming family-owned bakery feels like a little slice of Europe. You can't go wrong with any of the fresh pastries, but the sourdough quiche is my favorite!

JANET'S CAFE

12 N Fisher Park Way | Eagle, ID 83616

- » A classic local breakfast spot that's always worth the wait. If you go, don't leave without trying the cinnamon roll french toast!

SIREN SONG WINES

55 E State St | Ste 310 | Eagle, ID 83616

- » Great wine, delicious small plates, and one of my favorite rooftop patios. I recommend the Taste of Europe Flight and the Prosciutto & Burrata Board.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

EAGLE ISLAND STATE PARK

165 S Eagle Island Pkwy | Eagle, ID 83616

- » One of my favorite outdoor oasis's year-round! Great walking loops with river access in the summer, and a fun sledding and ski park in the winter!

REID MERRILL PARK

637 E Shore Dr | Eagle, ID 83616

- » My absolute favorite park as a kid! Now it's one of my favorite easy parking spots for greenbelt access.
